EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Peter Maki on 1-3-2007.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 13 has been canceled

In claim 11;

at line 3, after "and elongated tube",

"including a lubricant-coated internal surface" has been deleted at line 7, after "a holding member",

-- removably attachable to said tunneling rod and -- has been inserted

at line 8, after "elongated tube",

-- ; and an interchangeable tunneling tip removably attachable to said tunneling rod and having a generally tapered tip - - has been inserted

In claim 22;

at line 5 after "body"

“, the elongated hollow tube including a lubricant-coated internal surface” has been deleted at line 6 after “elongated”,

“rod” has been deleted

-- member -- has been inserted

at line 11, after “elongated tube”,

-- a tunneling rod sized to fit in said inner bore and having a tapered tunneling tip having a portion with a larger outer diameter than said bore inner diameter -- has been inserted

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The examiner's amendment better characterize the invention. The prior art of record does not teach a rod member with interchangeable tunneling tip and electrode holding in combination with the recited tube and lead and does not teach or render obvious the use of a tunneling rod with a tip larger than the bore. Applicant's removable tips allow for a smooth tube tip transition and rod removal without removing the tube from the patient.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Art Unit: 3766
